Kaba examines strategic options

Rümlang, 16 November 2010 – Kaba Holding AG is examining various strategic options for its Door Automation Business Segment. This includes ongoing talks with interested parties about a possible partnership or sale. Other strategic options are also being considered. Kaba's aim in this process is to create the best possible conditions for the future development of the Business Segment.

The Door Automation Business Segment consists mainly of Kaba Gilgen AG in Schwarzenburg (CH), which specializes in drives for automatic doors and gates, along with its international branches and distribution companies.

Such forward-looking statements are based on assumptions and expectations which the company believes to be well founded, but which could prove incorrect. They involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors which could mean that the actual results, financial situation, development or performance of the company are materially different from those explicitly or implicitly assumed in these statements. Such factors include:

- > Competition with other companies
- > The effects and risks of new technologies
- > The company's ongoing capital requirements
- > Financing costs
- > Delays in the integration of acquisitions
- > Changes in operating expenses
- > Fluctuations in exchange rates and raw materials prices
- > Attracting and retaining skilled employees
- > Changes to the relevant legislation
- > And other factors named in this communication

If one or more of these risks or uncertainties should actually occur, or if one of the underlying assumptions proves incorrect, the consequences could be materially different from the assumed ones. In view of these uncertainties, readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on such forward-looking statements. The company accepts no obligation to continue to report or update such forward-looking statements or adjust them to future events or developments, unless required by the law.
